

Data Visualization Coordinator (Tableau)

Description

We are Leads.io — the world's #1 tech-driven lead generation agency. With a determination to become an ever-better growth catalyst for our clients, we are on the lookout for fresh faces to join our team! Do you have what it takes to join Leads.io?

Key responsibilities:

Leads.io is on the search for a Data Visualization Coordinator to complement our dynamic work environment. As a Data Visualization Coordinator, you will lead the visualization strategies for key departments and stakeholders, developing strategies to reveal insights, track KPIs, and automate reporting. Bring your Tableau and visualization expertise to enhance our dashboards, visualizations, and understanding of our growing data.

Note: Leads.io uses all MacBooks, so PowerBI is not needed. We're looking for a high level of Tableau expertise.

Other responsibilities are:

- Manage key stakeholder relationships to understand business needs, then identify and scope needed visualizations and reports to support those business needs
- Develop and maintain Tableau dashboards and visualizations for internal departments
- Communicate with and train departments to maximize their value from these dashboards, as well as collect feedback on new iterations, visualizations, and features
- Oversee and mentor junior visualization specialist projects to create clearer visualizations appropriate for the business needs and leveraging the best features available within Tableau
- Collaborate with teams to define and track key performance indicators (KPIs)
- Manage, organize, and update datasets for use in Tableau and other data visualizations and reports
